POSTPARTUM FATHERS
Free support for new and expecting dads

Dads go through postpartum too.

Short, plain-language guides for fathers, written for the dad who is worn out at 2am, plus how to help a partner who is struggling. Free, anonymous, and in English and Spanish. No ads, no sign-up, nothing for sale.

Does any of this sound like you?

- “I’m angry all the time.”
- “I feel numb.”
- “I can’t sleep, even when the baby sleeps.”
- “I’m worried about her.”

These are common in the first year, and they get better with support.

Scan with your phone camera

postpartumfathers.org

Thinking about suicide or in crisis? Call or text 988 any time.
Emergency: 911.

Postpartum Support International HelpLine (support and referrals, dads too, not a crisis line): call 1-800-944-4773 or text “Help” to 800-944-4773.

National Maternal Mental Health Hotline (24/7, call or text, dads too): 1-833-852-6262

Postpartum Fathers is peer support, not medical advice, and doesn’t replace care from a doctor or licensed mental health professional. Clinics are welcome to copy and post this flyer. Spanish version: postpartumfathers.org/es/flyer.html